OPERATIONS ATTACHMENT

PANAMA BUREAU MONTHLY REPORT, FEBRUARY 1981

1. The two clandestine transmitters broadcasting to El Salvador, Radio Liberation and Radio Venceremos, went off the air on 6 and 10 February respectively. Coincidentally San Salvador Domestic Service, whose short-wave signal became audible once more following the launching of the FMLN's "general offensive," also became unheard on 6 February. On 14 February Radio Venceremos resumed its two daily 1-hour broadcasts but Radio Liberation, the "official" voice of the FMLN, has not been heard from again.
2. Due to heightened interest in official Nicaraguan broadcasts during the month several special services were provided. For 3 weeks Nicaraguan program summaries (5 shows daily) were wirefiled to headquarters; input for an analysis of Nicaraguan official media reports and commentaries on the Salvadoran situation was prepared; and Radio Sandino program summaries and recordings for a 9-day period were provided to a high-level local consumer.
3. The other leading leftist transmitter in the area, San Jose Radio Noticias del Continente (of Costa Rica), has been ordered by the government to suspend its broadcasts until a legal study of its operations is completed. The Costa Rican Government had found no grounds to heed many earlier complaints about the station's programming, and this latest action stems from a discovery of weapons on the station's premises. Due to the many formalities that have to be complied with before the measure is implemented, the station was still on the air at month's end.
4. The following cruising observations were made during February:

--

STAT

c. Updated program schedules were compiled for Panama City Radio Hogar, Radio Uno Soberana and ABC Radio.

d. A new Panama City FM station, Omega Stereo, was observed on the air from 9 February on.
